

Dear Santa's Little Helpers,

Ho, ho, ho, and Merry Christmas! Or at least I hope it will be merry...

We've been having problems with that mischievous Mr. Grinch again. He's been causing trouble at every turn, and now he's missing! Usually, I would have my elves track him down, but this is their busiest week of the year.

We think we know where the Grinch is hiding. I've hidden clues to his location all around your house. But the clues are in code so the Grinch can't discover we're looking for him.

Your assignment is to follow the clues and locate the Grinch. The first clue is on the bottom of this letter. I've left a special decoder ornament on your Christmas tree. Mini Me will point the way.

Good luck. I'm counting on you! The fate of Christmas is in your hands.

Jingle all the way,

Santa
